

2009 – ZEBRA JUNCTION IS A POWER DUO OF SEXTET PROPORTIONS.

Hailing from Denver, Colorado, Flitz Alan & Micah Lundy are currently wrapping up their 4th studio album and planning American and European tours.

Working with a collection of rare, hybrid and homespun instruments, this power duo's Vaudeville approach includes “creative” percussion, baritone guitars, and such unconventional instruments as the banjo-ukulele, a hyper-modified Playskool tape deck used for “scratch”, toy piano, and numerous samplers and effects to morph “old school” into “no school.”

If Tom Waits, Tim Burton, and the White Stripes baked a cake together, it would taste and sound a lot like Zebra Junction!

ZJ was again nominated as one of Denver's top bands in 2008. They recorded a musical album with Denver's own comedy superstar Josh Blue to be released in Spring/Summer 09. This album includes a live performance w/ Blue at Red Rocks Amphitheater in front of a sold-out crowd!

WHAT OTHERS HAVE TO SAY ABOUT ZEBRA JUNCTION:

"This is fresh, exciting, and sonically vibrant. I am so excited to not only enjoy Waterborne, but to have had Zebra Junction play Red Rocks. This is a must-have piece of art."

Erik Dyce- Red Rocks Amphitheatre

“They sounded even larger than their studio album...I was an active audience participant in a vaudeville spectacle, some sort of bewildering showcase of pure entertainment. ZJ thrives on the adventure of live performance.”

Erica Grossman Boulder Weekly

(write-up on Fox Theater CD Release show of Pomme de Terre)

“Pure creative genius! I hope everyone loves Pomme De Terre as much as I do.”

Gus Skinas Super Audio Studios

(Mastering Engineer for 30th anniversary of Dark Side Of The Moon)

IF YOU TAKE THE TIME TO LISTEN YOU WILL HEAR:

Zebra Junction, both live and in the studio, melds together a deeply eclectic group of styles. They seamlessly move from funk-ed-up bluegrass to drunken Tin Pan Alley ragtime; from the Celtic sounds of a whaling ship, to colorful electronic grooves, to effortless harmonies. This gutsy-rootsy, high energy power duo, with their creativity and unique repertoire, conjures up a fresh experience that takes the listener from living room to amphitheater. All aboard!
